HOMELESS DAY ON THE HILL BRINGS GOVERNOR TO CENTRAL

The first sitting governor to participate in Homeless Day on the Hill, Minnesota Gov. Tim Walz advocating for housing for all says “This is a moral imperative”.

March brought the biggest Homeless Day on the Hill in the history of the Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless.

Advocates brought with them two big agenda items to the capitol.

(1) To increase MFIP (Minnesota Family Investment Program), a cash assistance program that's maximum payout, $532 a month, hasn't increased since 1986.

(2) To increase the Emergency Services program, giving homeless shelters across the state a $15 million dollar increase.

And they got a boost that they hadn't expected: The first appearance by a sitting governor to the events, Governor Tim Walz, and Lieutenant Governor Peggy Flanagan who told the group that she is where she is today because of the MFIP program.

WORSHIP

SUNDAY, APRIL 7

Worship, featuring Arvo Pärt's Berliner Messe. Berliner Messe (or Berlin Mass) is a mass setting by Estonian Composer Arvo Pärt.

Arvo Pärt is a deeply spiritual composer. He is Eastern Orthodox, and finds God in the silence between sound, and the patterns that music made. He also uses composing as a way to discover more about life, music, and work. Pärt uses his tintinnabuli technique throughout, with movements taking many forms within that style - flowing from quietly reverent duets between parts to full chorus proclamations of faith.

We invite you to find the calming patterns of notes and the rhythmic ebb and flow as a way of meditation. You can listen to the piece on YouTube by searching "Berliner Messe Part" or purchase a download from your favorite music source.

The Central Choir will be joined by other choral musicians as well as guest organist Liisa Keränen.

PALM SUNDAY, APRIL 14

On Palm Sunday, we will remember the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, and we will look at the preparations underway for Jesus to celebrate the Passover meal with his disciples. Our children will lead the parade and sing in worship along with the Central Choir. Rev. Colby will preach.

The Central Choir will be joined by our Sunday School Singers for a special celebratory anthem as we usher in Palm Sunday.

MAUNDY THURSDAY, APRIL 18

7 : 3 0 P . M .

On this night, Christians gather around the world to remember Jesus' last supper with the disciples before his betrayal and death.

EASTER SUNDAY, APRIL 21

Alleluia! Christ is risen! Festive worship this morning to celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Sharing in worship are Central Choir, Ars Nova Brass Ensemble, and the debut of the Central Chamber Ensemble.

Extended prelude music begins at 10:15 a.m. with worship at 10:30 a.m. Easter egg hunt for children follows worship.

SUNDAY, APRIL 28

The Rev. Dr. David Van Dyke will preach. Dr. Van Dyke retired as the pastor at the House of Hope Presbyterian Church in St. Paul in early 2018. He will preach on the gospel story of "Doubting Thomas" and reflect on how people of faith deal with disappointments and how hope persists.

PC(USA) EXAMINATION AND ORDINATION

[ BY REV. ASHLEY BAIR ]

On Saturday, March 16, I had the pleasure to go before the Presbytery of Lake Michigan to be examined for ordination. This examination was my final step in the ordination process, one that I had been working toward for four years.

Each Presbytery has their own committee to oversee the process of ordination. I began the process for ordination in 2015 right before entering seminary. At the time, I had many questions about what my future might hold and what kind of rigorous procedure I would be put through. These past four years have been spent in education through seminary, clinical pastoral experiences, church engagement, and research. I also had to successfully pass five ordination exams covering the topics: Bible Content, Worship, Polity, Theology, and Exegesis (in either Hebrew or Ancient Greek).

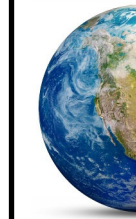

After all education and exams are completed, a candidate for ministry can begin looking for a call - and when a call is offered and accepted, then a candidate can go before the Presbytery for their final examination on the floor for ordination.

When I was examined on the floor of the Presbytery, I read aloud my personal statement of faith and opened myself up for questioning. There were over 200 people in attendance and any of them could ask me any question they wanted - any question they wanted. To put it mildly, it was a bit nerve wracking. However, this is a vital part of the ordination process - a chance to test each candidate on their knowledge, ability to adapt, and pastoral presence. Life in ministry is full of unknown questions and answers.

I am happy to say that I passed the examination and will continue to minister with the Central Presbyterian Church community. In case any of you may wonder what kind of questions the Presbytery asked me, or are thinking about asking me questions yourself, here is a list of questions I was asked on the floor:

- How does the church begin reconciliation with God's creation?
- What scripture passage are you currently struggling to understand?
- As a young woman in ministry, you may find yourself challenged and questioned by others - what will your mantra for the church be?
- The church seems to be losing its social authority, how do you think the church should engage the community at large on social issues?
- What is your favorite confessional doctrine?
- What are some of the most pressing social justice issues for the church today?
- How should Christians relate to other communities of faith in a society that likes to find someone to blame for moral failures?
- How important is the order of the Trinity?

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS!

April is Volunteer Appreciation Month and with it comes an opportunity to acknowledge and celebrate the work that our many volunteers do year-round in so many areas.

Be it those who usher, serve coffee and help in the nursery each Sunday, or those who step up to help each November for Project Home and December for Deck the Halls, there are so many ways to help and so many ways we are blessed by volunteers who enable Central to be in the city for good.

If you have not yet volunteered at Central, we hope you will consider doing so in the coming year. Areas where volunteers are often needed include:

- Ushering during worship and special events
- Serving coffee on Sunday
- Nursery care
- Sanctuary pew organizing
- Serving lunch at Mary Hall
- Wednesday and Third Sunday Lunch service
- Martha's Closet organizing

If you are interested in learning more about ways you can connect and serve at Central, we invite you to volunteer! To see a list of current open volunteer needs, go to www.centralforgood.org/volunteer. This list changes continuously throughout the year and includes both recurring and one-time opportunities.

Craig Foss and Todd Mikish help as ushers on Sunday, greeting visitors and collecting the offering.

Sue Hoffman serves as the leader for the Women of Central, coordinating networking events.

Miss Cora and Avis Tilden are smiling faces in fellowship as they serve coffee and juice.

Gifty Amarteifio has served on the Designed Associate Pastor Nominating Committee as well as provided care in the nursery during worship.

Dwight Colby and Dick Swanson enjoy lunch at a local historic favorite, Mickey's Diner, after volunteering as Central's "Pew Patrol" – straightening hymnals and Bibles, restocking envelopes and pens, and making progress on matching pew cushions to their correctly-sized pew.

Casey Wells, Craig Muntifering and Sandy White share their time by helping to prepare Wednesday and Third Sunday Lunches.

HOMELESS DAY ON THE HILL [ BY REV. ASHLEY BAIR ]

I've seen a few busy Wednesdays here at Central Presbyterian Church. Our Wednesday lunches attract a great crowd of people hungry for good food and lunchtime fellowship with our neighbors. Last Wednesday, March 13, however, was the busiest Wednesday I've seen yet. With over 800 participants, the Homeless Day on the Hill filled our sanctuary with people from all over the State of Minnesota ready to advocate for those experiencing homelessness. These people were hungry, not just for food, but for change.

Minnesota's unsheltered population is still very high. In fact, the state's unsheltered population has increased by 41% in four years. Families experiencing homelessness often apply for the Minnesota Family Investment Program (MFIP), an assistance program that provides temporary cash assistance to children and families. Minnesota is one of three states that has not increased the maximum benefits of MFIP in 33 years. A family today would receive the same cash amount that a family in 1986 received.

There are at least 6,000 youth in Minnesota experiencing homelessness every night. Sometimes homelessness seems like an invisible issue. Many people experiencing homelessness are not necessarily living on the street; people live in cars, temporary housing, and float from loved one to loved one. While shelters remain one of the most comprehensive places to receive quality support, 63 out of the 87 counties in Minnesota do not have emergency shelters.

Homeless Day on the Hill gathered folks from these counties to advocate at the Capitol for better support for our homeless neighbors. Right now, our districts need more funding for emergency shelters and MFIP. With additional resources,

Minnesota would be able to shorten shelter stays, enhance quality programming, and increase the number of families receiving support to work toward full housing and employment. We would be able to ensure housing needs and homes for all.

Every Sunday in worship we recite the Lord's Prayer, which includes the ask, "Lord, may your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven..." I imagine that in heaven, every person is fed and housed and thriving. It is our call here to fulfill God's will, that it may be on earth as it is heaven; working to make sure all God's children are fed and housed and thriving.

The $532/month benefit received by MFIP program for a family of three has not been increased since 1986. Read about the new funding proposal bill ( HF799 ) at www.house.leg.state.mn.us/SessionDaily/Story/13711.

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS!

DWIGHT & NANCY COLBY

In February, Central welcomed several new members to the congregation through profession of faith and baptism, transfer and re-affirmation of faith. As they continue to make their home here, we invite you to learn more about them on the following page and engage them in the life, people and culture of Central when you see them.

If you are interested in learning more about Central, the process of becoming a member or getting more involved as a volunteer or connected as a visitor, please contact New Members & Volunteer Committee Chair Alex Bollman at alexmbollman@msn.com at anytime.

DWIGHT & NANCY COLBY

Yes, of course, we are Dave's parents! Although we have attended Central for several years, our membership has been at another church. Sometimes church membership poses questions for parents of clergy! Why join now?

JIM & MARGARET CELLETTE

Simply, it just feels like the right time.

We are longtime Roseville residents and Macalester alums; Nancy is a lifelong Presbyterian, and Dwight almost. Before retirement, Dwight worked in the field of computer and network security, and Nancy in education. Our seven grandchildren and their parents are the center of our lives, although we do find time for a few other things. Dwight loves fishing, especially fly fishing and sporting events. Nancy likes to read, garden, and participate in two French conversation groups.

We look forward to being full-fledged members of Central!

MARGARET & JIM CELLETTE

Margaret and Jim Cellette live in the Macalester-Groveland neighborhood. They are retired and have three grown children. Margaret was born and raised in Illinois and has deep roots in the Presbyterian tradition. She volunteers in an

KOLWICZ - BENDER FAMILY

Alzheimer's respite care program and at the Center for Victims of Torture. Margaret is active in PEO, and she also rings in a local hand bell choir. Jim grew up in Northeast Minneapolis. He volunteers as a teaching assistant at the International Institute of Minnesota. He has been researching his family history and also participates in a writer's group at Merriam Park Library. Margaret and Jim enjoy music, travel, attending Twins games, and taking care of their granddaughter, Emily, on Mondays and Fridays.

KOLWICZ - BENDER FAMILY

Judy Kolwicz and Lou Bender are lifetime Presbyterians who, with their daughters Elizabeth and Jiahong Bender, arrived at CPC looking for a good sermon, adventurous music, a diverse community, and active mission. Both are theologically trained and worked in church ministry for many years. Judy retired from executive service, and Lou now teaches special education high school students. Elizabeth is a first year student at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia, majoring in applied mathematics in the pre-engineering program. Jiahong, an artist and fierce advocate for justice, is a junior at Avalon School. The four of them share interests in reading, music, travel, and creating equitable communities.

THANK YOU!

Thank you Wendy Flinner for volunteering your musical talents as guest organist during worship this month.

Thank you Pat Cook for all the extra hours putting together furniture and helping to prepare a new office for Rev. Ashley Bair.

4TH SUNDAY KNITTING GROUP

We meet every 4th Sunday of the month. We gather after worship in the Friendship Room. Then we move to the Oval Room to be in a quieter space.

We have been gathering for 2 years to knit and crochet prayer shawls that are distributed by Rev. Colby, church members, and the deacons. This month we will be starting to make pocket prayer squares that fit in one's pocket. They are a reminder that our community holds you close and prays for you. These small ones will make it easy for any of us to pick one up at church and give it to someone. It is such a concrete gesture of care, binding us together.

This project is perfect for beginners or first time knitters. We will be happy to teach you how to knit and help you along the way. All materials are supplied. Just bring yourself.

Knitting (or crocheting) is a calming, companionable, meditative activity. This month we will add a short quiet period when one of us will read a passage from a favorite book, poem, meditation, or tell a story.

If you have questions, please email or call Maggie Gordon at margaretagordon@gmail.com or call 651-470-8636.

See you at our next event on Sunday, April 28 after worship!
