A LOOK TOWARDS HOLY WEEK
SHARE THIS EASTER AT CENTRAL

[BY REV. CAROL REED]

As we move through the weeks of Lent, the Scripture lessons that guide our worship have pointed us towards considering the gifts of grace we have from God and what it means to us individually to be a follower of Jesus Christ. At the end of Lent, we arrive at Easter, the day of resurrection, the most holy day for Christians.

At most churches attendance goes up for Palm Sunday and Easter. There is always wonderful music on those Sundays, an uplifting and celebratory feel to those services.

Between those Sundays is Holy Week where we are reminded of things we do not want to dwell on because they are too sad or difficult and ask something of us. However, if we want to truly experience the joy and meaning of Easter, Holy Week is truly important.

The youth at Central will be leading the Maundy Thursday service this year which as always, will conclude with communion, recalling the Last Supper Jesus shared with his disciples. Whether or not you are

MAKE AN OFFERING (OF LETTERS) TO FIGHT HUNGER!

[FROM LEON OMAN]

The Hunger Task Force at Central is sponsoring a letter/email writing event on Sunday, April 3, after worship in the Friendship Room, during coffee time.

In partnership with Bread for the World, we will join hundreds of churches nationwide in writing our members of Congress to pass legislation to help end hunger. The topic this spring is Global Malnutrition.

After steadily declining for a decade, global hunger is on the rise. A shortage of food will make things worse - a crucial portion of the world's wheat, corn and barley (and even fertilizer) is trapped because of the Russia/Ukraine war. Malnutrition is the leading risk factor for death among children globally, accounting for 45 percent of all child deaths - losses that are almost entirely preventable. Our letters will urge members of Congress to support the bipartisan Global Malnutrition Prevention and Treatment Act of 2021 and increase global nutrition funding.

More information about the bill and sample letters will be available to help you write or prepare your email. If you prefer using an ipad/tablet, you can even bring yours with you. You'll also enjoy a "bread" treat prepared by Maggie Gordon.

Please join us for this Bread for the World Offering of Letters!

NEW ART ON DISPLAY AT CENTRAL

[FROM KIERA FAYE]

The gallery in the Friendship Room now features abstract watercolor and collage works by Marie Panlener. We are working on scheduling an artist reception sometime after Holy Week. However, in the meantime, we invite you to visit the new exhibition and see Marie's watercolor paintings. You will delight in the luminous color that is full of movement. It complements the colors of the stained glass windows so beautifully!

"I started my professional art career in a corporate graphics department in print design, and moved into web design, then video production and editing. I retired and am now able to watercolor paint daily, right after I drink a cup of coffee and catch up with the funnies," states Marie Panlener. "The qualities of watercolor: movement, transparency, color, value, are so absorbing that all other things retreat. There is a lot to learn and lots of choices to make. It took me five years to settle on the colors in my palette and now and then I still find a new color to try. Watercolor painting takes years of commitment, including lots of failure (just part of the process). But then again I might be a slow learner."

Stop by the Friendship Room the next time you are at Central and see Marie's works. Then join us when we announce the date of the artist's reception and learn more about the inspiration, process, and works direct from the artist. See more from Marie at www.mariepanlener.com.

UPDATE ON SEARCH FOR INSTALLED PASTOR

CENTRAL'S MISSION STUDY HAS BEEN APPROVED!

[FROM REV. CAROL REED]

Back in November, the Commission on Ministry of the Presbytery informed us they wanted us to do supplemental work on the Ministry Study we had submitted. We are a connectional church and as such, needed to get the approval of the Presbytery before we could start the process towards calling a new installed pastor.

Capturing Voices

In the months since then there have been opportunities for the congregation to let their voice be heard about goals for the church and what kind of leadership could lead the church forward towards reaching those goals. There was a retreat for leaders, questionnaires in Sunday bulletins, as well as a gathering of the entire congregation following worship one Sunday.

A report of our findings was compiled into a Ministry Study and sent to the Presbytery for approval in March. (It can be downloaded at website www.centralforgood.org/pastor-search)

The Nominating Committee, following informational meetings for those interested in serving on the Pastor Nominating Committee and countless phone calls, presented a slate of names that was voted on at the annual meeting of the congregation on March 27.

- Gifty Amarteifio
- Sue Hoffman
- Jackie Klaehn
- John Lee
- Todd Mikish
- Lynda Petrie
- Josh Voelker
- Al Zdrazil

What Happens Now?

The Presbytery has assigned Diane Smith, a Ruling Elder from House of Hope Presbyterian Church, to serve as a liaison to the Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC). They will begin their work as soon as they are able to gather together as a group. The first steps that will be done, after they elect a moderator, will be to refer to the Ministry Study in writing the Church Information Form (CIF), a job description and informational form that will be distributed to potential candidates. Together with the help of the liaison from Presbytery, the CIF will be entered in a data base of the denomination and a nationwide search will begin for an installed pastor. We will look forward to hearing updates from the PNC about the process as it moves forward.

Thank You

Thank you to all those who participated in the process to date as well as those who gathered people and information that was compiled into the Ministry Study: Phyllis Brashler, Laura Hutton, Christie Rachele, and Carol Reed. Please hold the PNC in prayer as they work together to find the best candidate for Central Presbyterian Church.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

[FROM JENNIFER ANDERSON]

Sunday Mornings

- 9:15 A.M.
Nursery care is available with Megan and our volunteers.
- 10:30 A.M.
Following Time for Children in worship, kids are invited upstairs for Sunday Connection with Laura Walls and our volunteers

During Lent, our theme is "Overflowing with Grace." While we consider what it means to live a life abundant in grace, we can also share abundantly with others!

Our children received the One Great Hour of Sharing Fish Boxes in March. Remember to bring your fish boxes back to church as part of the Palm Sunday Processional on April 10.

Sunday Connection

Sunday Connection takes place upstairs in the education wing on Sunday mornings following worship's Time for Children.

Typically led by Laura Walls (Sunday Connection Coordinator), this involves our elementary-aged kids learning about the Bible story, doing an activity or craft, praying together, and talking together about what may be on their minds.

Buy A Chair!

We are re-doing the Elementary Classroom upstairs to make the space more user-friendly and age-appropriate. Can you help?

We are in need of child-size chairs. Currently, we have little bitty chairs for our youngest ones, and we have adult chairs, but we do not have chairs that fit our 2nd – 5th graders. If you are able to contribute to the purchasing of child size chairs (and tables to go with them!) and other room upgrades, please write a check to Central Presbyterian Church (with "Chair" in the memo line). Many thanks for your generosity!

Have questions? Please speak with Jennifer Anderson or Phyllis Brashler. Many thanks!

Volunteers and Staff Needed for Children's Ministry on Sunday Mornings

Caring adults are needed upstairs to provide a safe environment for our young ones on Sundays.

We are looking for both volunteers (please consider signing up for 1 Sunday per quarter at centralforgood.org/volunteer) and we are hiring some paid staff as well.

Do you know a great candidate? If so, please share this opportunity with anyone who has a heart for young children and is looking for part-time employment.

To learn more about the position, read the job description online at www.centralforgood.org/employment.

YOUTH NEWS

Check out the New Youth Space!

Huge thanks to those who have helped to create a new, beautiful, comfortable, and exciting youth room upstairs at Central!

We couldn't have done it without donations of furniture (and the delivery of said furniture) from Jeremy Berg! Gratitude also goes out to Jim O'Neill, Wendy and Mark Flinner, Pastor Carol, Jess Garner, Lucy Hiestand, Peter Evarts, Anna Sanchez, Mary Lange, Lavar Jones. —Jennifer Anderson

BUILDING RESTORATION RESULTS

[FROM CHRISTIE RACHELLE]

The first phase of restoration work necessary to preserve the integrity and historic character of our building's exterior has been completed. Some items, such as the replacement of the storm glass that surrounds our beautiful stained glass windows, have been dramatic changes easily observed. Others, have been more subtle and, perhaps, not obvious.

Here you will find a few of those details so you may have a better understanding and appreciation of that work, made possible in part by funding through the State of Minnesota Arts and Cultural Heritage Fund, administered through the Minnesota Historical Society. To learn more about our building renovation projects, contact the office or Fluryanne Leach, our project director.

BEFORE: Stone surface cracking, on the verge of breaking.

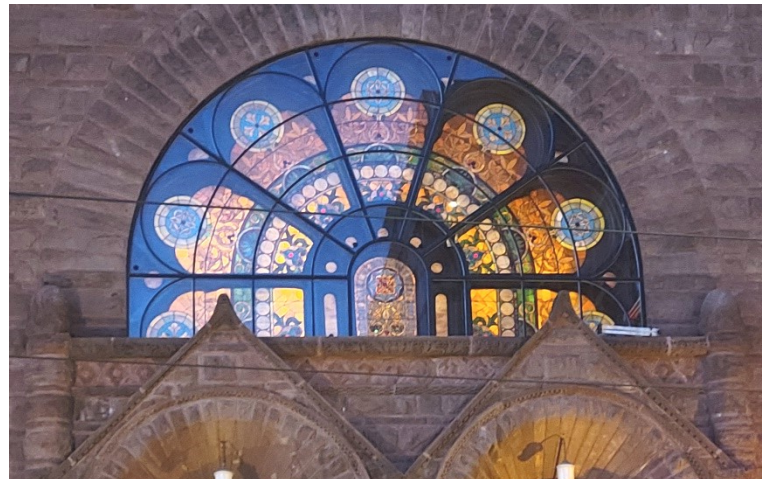

AFTER: Masons removed loose portions and patched to match stone.

DURING: Details of the stained glass are so well seen during the replacement process.

BEFORE: Storm window covers were cloudy over the stained glass window, concealing the wood frame.

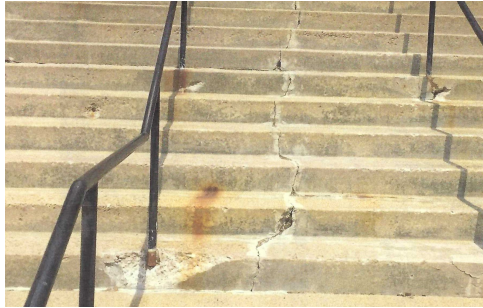

AFTER: Stained glass is visible again!

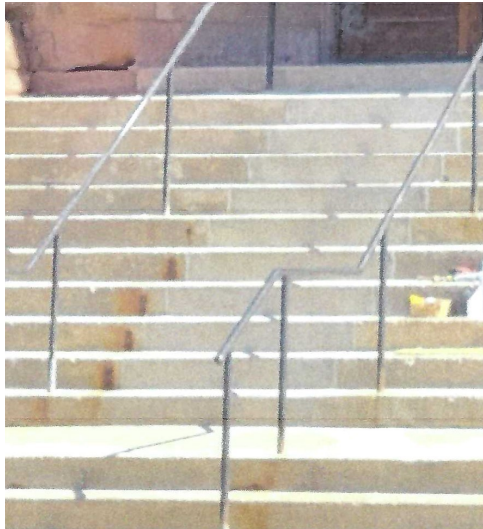

BEFORE: Previous patchwork of rosettes above main entrance were deteriorating.

AFTER: Deteriorating patches were replaced, retaining as much of the original stone as possible.

BEFORE: Cracked and crumbling concrete on steps of main entrance.

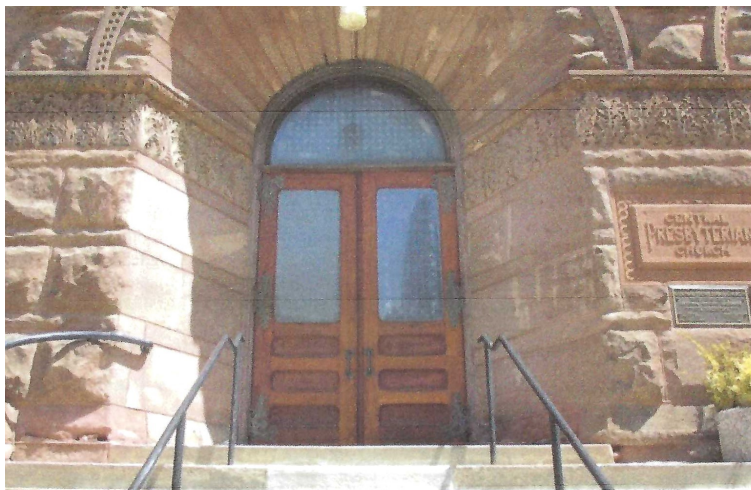

AFTER: Damaged section of stair concrete replaced.

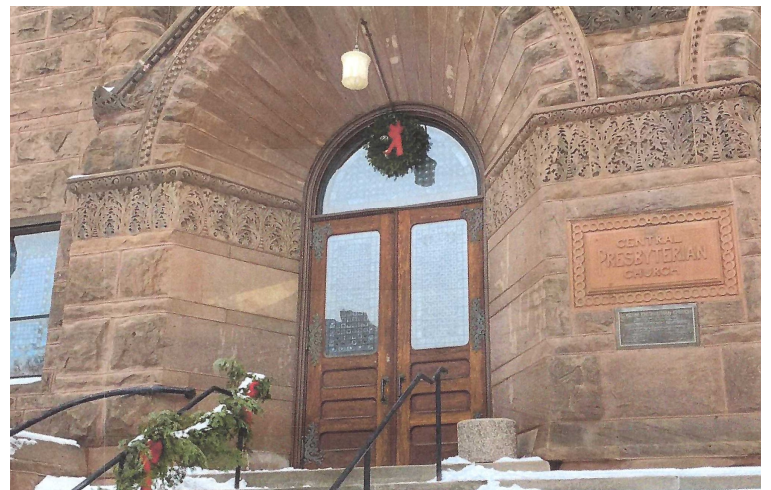

BEFORE: Spalled (fractured) and crumbling stone and mortar joints on stair wall by entry.

AFTER: Two stones replaced in wing wall, wing wall repointed.

BEFORE: Spalling (fracture) and surface erosion at the stones adjacent to the ground surfaces.

AFTER: In addition to stone repair/replacement at the entrance, the cloudy storm windows on the entrance doors and adjacent windows were replaced.

Eco-Palms for Palm Sunday Celebration

Every year Central and other congregations worldwide celebrate Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem by waving palm branches.

In 2007 the PC(USA) teamed up with Lutheran World Relief, Catholic Relief Services and the University of Minnesota to offer congregations the option of purchasing responsibly harvested Eco-Palm branches for Palm Sunday. The palms we are using come from communities in Mexico and Guatemala where workers are paid fairly and engage in sustainable harvesting in order to protect the local ecosystem.
