Eight Bible Stories You Need to Know

FROM REV. CHATELAINE-SAMSEN

We're already halfway through a summer sermon series on what I believe are eight Bible stories you need to know. These eight stories span the Bible from beginning to end, marking critical milestones in the stories of Israel and of the followers of Jesus.

Why does it matter that we know these stories? Some of my favorite memories are of stories shared by family members, especially grandparents. Stories of ancestors coming to America. Stories about the things we still laugh about. Stories about making commitments and facing consequences. Stories about the big stuff and the little stuff, all shaping my understanding of the world and who I am in it.

That's why we tell important stories over and over again. Those stories, even when they're about other people, are about us. They orient us to our place and purpose. So when we share stories from Scripture, we're sharing those stories that have formed generations of people into a common and complex faith. They matter to us because, even if we don't realize it, they have formed who we are, what we believe, and where we're going. And, as it turns out, they tell the story of a God who has always had it in mind to love and care for the whole of creation.

I hope you find some good storytelling time this summer.

Maybe over a campfire, or with some friends and family over for a weekend. Listen and tell those stories with an ear towards why they matter and how they've made you who you are. And may you notice that, sometimes obviously and sometimes quietly, that God has been there in those stories all along.

Peace,
Chris

Planning for the Future

This past month, the Women of Central gathered for a delicious meal, followed by a conversation about the activities and future of the Women of Central. Current activities include;

- Meeting monthly to share a meal and grow in community.
- A multi-generational knitting ministry to create items for our congregation and the greater community.
- Sponsoring the Thank Offering on behalf of Presbyterian Women, for projects and start-ups related to health ministry around the world.
- Hosting brunch for Deck the Halls, connecting all generations over a meal, on a day filled with festive activities church-wide.
- Supplying support to service projects within the church.

We are beginning to look forward to help us grow in our spiritual lives and provide service in our congregation and community. Many ideas were discussed, and questions were raised about how to engage more women in our community.

- Moments for Mission for Central Closet, Knitting Group, Coffee Fellowship, and Landscaping.
- Supporting the moms in our community with a Saturday gathering that includes childcare.

Women of Central welcomes those of all ages who identify as women in our congregation. If you want to know more, get involved, have questions or ideas for involvement, we invite you to reach out to us at women@centralforgood.org.

Networking Group

On Monday, July 10, the Women's Networking Group will meet at Barrio in Lowertown (235 6th St E, St Paul, MN).

You can meet us at church at 5:15 p.m. to walk over there as a group, or simply meet us at the restaurant at 5:30 p.m.

Please RSVP by Thursday, July 6 to women@centralforgood.org if you plan to join us.

In August we plan to return to Red River Kitchen at City House (258 Mill Street, St. Paul, MN). This is a favorite location for this group because of the casual atmosphere, good food, and great views of the river.

Want to stay in the loop on WoC upcoming events? Drop an email to women@centralforgood.org to be added to the mailing list for upcoming event announcements and group news.

Beacon Celebrates Exciting Accomplishments!

BY LEON OMAN, BEACON LEADERSHIP TEAM, PHOTOGRAPHS BY JOHN SEVERSON

The past couple months have been a very active time for Central's mission for housing justice and we thank you for your support and engagement in the work to drive change.

Legislature Responds

The Beacon Leadership Team at Central is celebrating major accomplishments at the State Legislature this year with the entire Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative network.

Bring It Home, Minnesota passed, creating 5,500 new rent vouchers for Minnesota families with low incomes. There are many more who need this help, but this is a fantastic start to an idea which began four years ago – a solid foundation to build on in future legislative sessions.

Overall, the Minnesota Legislature dramatically increased investment in housing, which has historically been a low percentage in the overall State budget. Included was $200 million dollars to build new affordable housing – and $25 million for a new “strengthen supportive housing program” that will fill currently unfunded but necessary elements to supportive housing like front desk and security personnel.

Thanks to everyone who joined in advocating for new laws and appropriations. You helped by sending emails; calling elected officials; attending hearings and rallies; and praying for justice.

Keys to Unlock the Metro

Thank you as well to everyone who helped out with the Beacon "Keys" collection and activity this past month. Together, 688 keys were collected and tagged with messages to the Met Council to unlock the metro to deeply affordable housing. Central's Beacon team is especially joyful that many of you joined in housing advocacy for the first time! (See next page for pictures from that event.)

On June 14, 40 people from across the Beacon Interfaith Collaborative gathered at Central. Our keys combined with other churches totaling over 1000 - representing a portion of the affordable apartment homes that need to be built in the suburbs of the wider Metro. They cannot be built unless the Metropolitan Council creates a consistent policy for providing project-based vouchers for deeply affordable housing development.

After rehearsing songs of justice in our sanctuary, Pastor Chris blessed us and sent us on our march to a meeting of the Met Council. There, we presented the keys and Rev. Elijah McDavid spoke to the full Council on our behalf.

Moving Forward

This summer, we will still be working hard, especially in following up with the Met Council to "Unlock the Metro" and create a policy of more project-based rental vouchers. This can have a huge impact on growing affordable housing in the suburbs, including Beacon's new development in Maplewood - Gladstone Crossing - which will bring 40 units of low-income housing to support families like those served by Project Home.

Get Involved

Do you want to be more involved in housing advocacy and justice missions? If so, contact the office and a member of Central's Beacon team will get back to you.

Central's Music Ensembles Welcome You!

BY JENNIFER ANDERSON, DIRECTOR OF MUSIC & YOUTH MINISTRY

A new program year will soon begin for our music ministry here at Central, and this is a great time to join an ensemble. We have several adult ensembles that meet regularly, and special events for all ages throughout the year.

Central Choir

An SATB adult choir that sings in worship nearly every week, September – May. While reading music isn't required, this choir moves quickly, learns a lot of repertoire, and throughout the year sings some challenging music, often highlighting the work of local composers! We also care for each other and laugh often.

Rehearsals are Wednesdays at 7:15 p.m. beginning September 6.

Chamber Ensemble

Open to adults and youth (grade 8 and up) who have played traditional band or orchestra instruments for three years. We rehearse on Sundays after worship occasionally. Contact Jennifer Anderson for music and a schedule.

Bell Ensemble

This is an ensemble for adults and high school youth with music-reading experience. This group will experiment with sounds and timbres and play interesting bell repertoire. Come and experiment with us, Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. Contact Jennifer Anderson if you'd like to join us so a part may be assigned.

Sticks & Steel Percussion

Throughout the year, during Sunday Connection, our elementary age kids will have an opportunity to discover the unique sounds of hand chimes, bells, marimba, hand drums, and other percussion, and to share their gifts in worship.

If you want to learn more about any of our music ensemble opportunities, or other areas of our music ministry, reach out to Jennifer Anderson, Director of Music & Youth Ministry at jennifera@centralforgood.org or (651) 227-4728 ext. 103.

Sanctuary Choir Coming to Central

Central Presbyterian Church is pleased to welcome the Sanctuary Choir from the First Presbyterian Church of Davenport, Iowa to worship on Sunday, July 30.

A premiere adult church choir in the Midwest, the Sanctuary Choir offers a variety of great choral music with an 85-member ensemble. The choir has a rich history of providing great music in the Quad Cities, having been featured for over two decades as part of the Quad City Symphony Orchestra's Holiday Pops concerts and twice on national PBS-TV.

The Sanctuary Choir has commissioned and premiered a number of choral works and arrangements, including anthems by such renowned composers as William Mathias, Howard Helvey, John Gere, Gary Fry, Stephen Mager, Jay Flood, and Mack Wilberg; building on the choir's commitment to creating new music, featuring a new commission by renowned British composer Jonathan Dove.

The choir has also worked with such distinguished composers and conductors as Jester Hairston, Andrew Carter, and Dale Warland. In the summer of 2018, the choir made its first international tour with a music outreach trip to Germany, and plans to return to Europe in 2021 with a tour of Ireland.
