SUNDAY WORSHIP
10:30 AM

Last month's newsletter announced the great news that Central received a large gift totaling $1.65 million dollars. This month I want to share a bit about the process that the Session will use in discernment about how best to use this gift, to encourage your excitement and continued support, and invite your input.

We know a few things. Money does not always make people happy. Countless studies have been done of lottery winners - and the surprise is that many are less happy with their lives after winning. We don't want that to happen. We also know Jesus' words, "From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required." With a gift like this, we have more responsibility to be good stewards of our resources.

Two years ago the Session did a Bible study of Jesus' parable of the talents (found in Matthew 25:14-30 and Luke 19:12-28). In this parable, three servants are entrusted with different amounts of talents (money - but it can be stretched to be a good metaphor for skills as well). And you may know the story, but two of the servants take their money and invest it and return it to the master with earnings, while the third operating out of fear, had buried the talent in the ground and returned it only to be chastised. That parable continues to serve as a framework for approaching the entire budget and this gift in particular - how can we be most faithful in how we use the talents with which we have been entrusted to do the most good in the way we think God would want us to use it?

So, the Session will be prayerful. And will work on sharing and listening in our discernment process. Over the next few months we will go from discussing the values that have shaped Central's unique history and character, to thinking about goals, and then thinking how best to use this new gift to achieve goals and build on our values. Some of the questions we will be asking include:

- Who are we?
- What makes us unique?
- What are our priorities?
- Who do we want to become?
- What do we want to do?
- How should we be different in our new financial condition?

If you have questions or ideas, please share them with me! The Session will be intentional about incorporating feedback and ideas from the staff and from the congregation, so I would love to hear from you. It's an exciting time for our community of faith - I look forward to being with you in person soon.

Peace and blessings to you and all,
David Colby

Thank You, Bill Zopfi!

At its February meeting, the Session elected Matt Ehling as Treasurer, and named Bill Zopfi Treasurer Emeritus. We are so grateful to Bill for decades of service as Central's Treasurer. Bill became treasurer during his working career at 3M. Upon his retirement from 3M, Bill was a regular in the church office, taking on duties of treasurer, doing accounting work, as well as building maintenance work. Bill is looking forward to continuing his involvement, and helping to assist Matt during this transition.

We will be communicating details about an event that is in the early stages of planning to thank Bill and honor his service.

Matt Ehling has served on Session, chaired the Finance and Stewardship Committee and chaired the Investments subcommittee. Matt is a writer and television producer, and the president of Public Record Media. He has served on the boards of non-profit organizations, including Minnesota Coalition on Government Information and St. Paul Neighborhood Network.

News From Facilities Management and Risk Assessment Committee

We are grateful to the Minnesota Historic Society for awarding us a Legacy Grant in the amount of $50,000. The money is to be used to hire a Historic Architect to do a survey of the condition of the exterior of our church including stonework, brickwork, steps, and protective covering of the stained glass windows.

The committee received four proposals in response to a request for proposals and has chosen Denita Lemmon from Miller Dunwiddie Company to carry out this project. We expect a kick-off meeting with Denita and her team in about 2 weeks. In early March they will undertake an intensive two-to-three day inspection of the exterior of the church. Based on that they will begin to prepare a report and basic architectural drawings. The end goal of the project is construction drawings and prioritized plans for work to be done.

- Fluryanne Leach, Chair of FMaRA Committee

Central has received a significant financial donation to explore how we can expand our ability to feed people who are hungry.

We have never turned anyone away from our Wednesday Community Lunches or Third Sunday Lunches for an inability to pay, but with this gift we now can be more intentional about meeting the needs of people in our neighborhood. Our staff, especially Barb Westman and Sue LeClaire, are brainstorming possibilities; we are researching what other nearby organizations provide; we have created a small stock of food in the church office; and we are actively exploring ideas.

If you have ideas or questions to consider, or a passion for this project, please be in touch with Rev. Colby at dcolby@cpctstpaul.org.

Central Choir Joins Other East Metro Churches to Raise Donations for March Food Drive

On Sunday, March 11, the Central Choir will be singing with other East Metro churches in hopes of bringing lots of food donations to local food shelves. The worship service/concert will be at 2:00, and all that is needed to attend is a donation of non-perishable food (or money).

LUMINA Women's Ensemble.

Lumina is a professional women's ensemble dedicated to the mystery, beauty, and hope inherent in music. Lumina's goal is to share the spiritual experience of music through performance, participation, and education. Based in the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota, Lumina has collaborated with faith communities, schools and choral organizations to present concerts, special church services, and educational workshops.

Book Discussion for Waking Up White Continues

The Co-Moderators of the 222nd General Assembly (2016) of the Presbyterian Church have encouraged the church to read and discuss the book Waking Up White and Finding Myself in the Story of Race by Debbie Irving).

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. once said that “it is appalling that the most segregated hour of Christian America is eleven o’clock on Sunday morning.” Much has changed since. But, much has not. If the church is to be involved in the work of justice and racial understanding and reconciliation in our society, we must engage in some self-examination and learning.

Discussions will be held Sundays, March 4, and 11

The Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless (MCH) is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) public policy and advocacy organization that works to ensure statewide housing stability and economic security.

The mission of the Minnesota Coalition for the Homeless is to generate policies, community support and local resources for housing and services to end homelessness in Minnesota.

We achieve our mission and vision through advocacy inside the Capitol, outside the Capitol and in the media. With our partners, MCH has advocated for state funds to build over 9,000 units of affordable housing, and cultivated over $270M in legislative wins for housing stability across the state. We've moved upstream to improve economic policy for families in Minnesota living in deep poverty.

Homelessness is declining, but we still have work to do!

Joint Religious Legislative Coalition Day on the Hill

JRLC is the largest and most inclusive interfaith public interest group in Minnesota — people of diverse faiths bringing vision and wisdom to the public realm for the well-being of Minnesotans. When JRLC was founded in 1971, it was the first interfaith public-interest lobby group in the United States. JRLC now has an extensive body of public policy statements and continually influences Minnesota legislation in many policy arenas including: welfare reform, housing, health care, human rights, criminal justice, environmental stewardship, tax policy, ethics in government, gambling, economic justice, bias crimes, firearms regulation, and other policy areas.

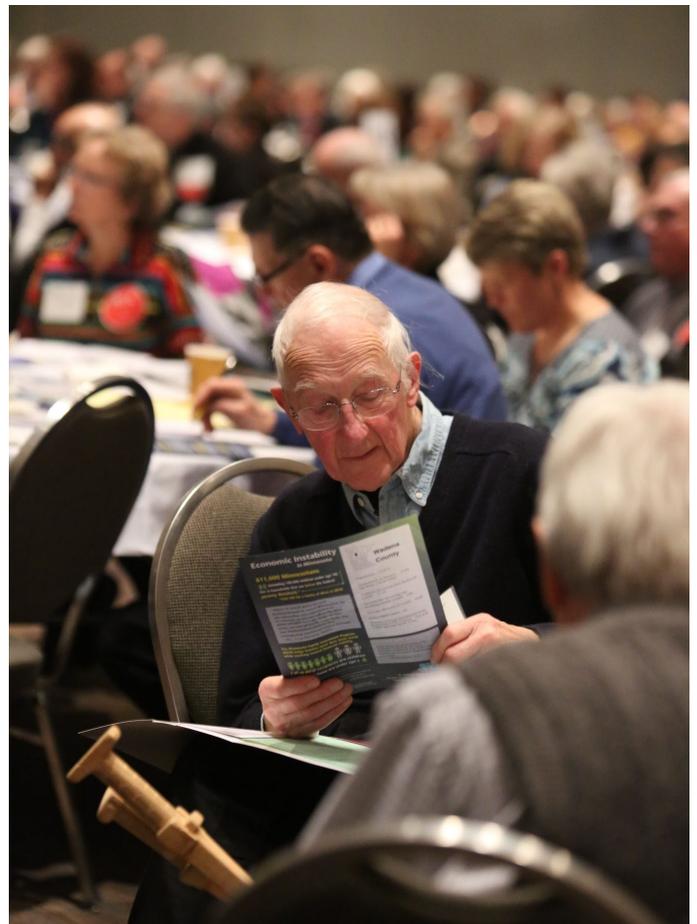

The JRLC Legislative Network involves over 8,000 faithful citizens and volunteers who act upon timely action alerts and issue briefings, and organize activities to shape public policy.

On March 13, 2018, we will convene our Day on the Hill conference at Central Presbyterian Church and the State Capitol. Participants will be briefed on social justice issues and then visit members of the legislature. In 2017, over 700 people from 64 of Minnesota's 67 senate districts participated.

The theme for this year's Day on the Hill is "If not now, when?" inspired by the famous quote from Rabbi Hillel. JRLC's Day on the Hill is an opportunity for people of faith from around the state to join together, be inspired, learn about critical issues, and have an impact at the State Capitol.

If you support our work for social justice, please join us! Registration can be done online at <https://jrlc.org/day-on-the-hill/registration>. If you are interested in volunteering at Day on the Hill and receiving free event registration, please contact Katie at kpowell@jrlc.org.

Day on the Hill participants will meet with like-minded people of the same and differing faith traditions, while hearing from policy and religious leaders about prescient issues. Time is built into the day for participants to learn more about their state legislators, to develop a plan for meeting with their legislators and to learn effective tactics for these meetings, and to leave with specific actions to continue to be an advocate beyond Day on the Hill.

We have scholarship funds to help make sure camp can happen for your family.

Pizza Party!

The 4th + Sunday school crew has been working with a new curriculum relating faith and family to pizza. It might seem like a stretch, but they have been learning a lot. We will be celebrating the end of this with theme with a pizza party on March 11th. We will meet in the kitchen to make our own mini pizzas. Pizzas and games in the John Huss room from 12-1:30. We look forward to seeing you there.

Youth Activity

At Central our Easter tradition includes an egg hunt following worship on Easter Sunday. Youth in grades 6+ help make this wonderful event happen by stuffing eggs and hiding them throughout the sanctuary. Sunday, March 11 following worship youth are invited to meet in the John Huss room for snacks and step one filling the eggs. We will fill several hundred eggs, so the more help the faster the project goes!

Camp Clearwater Forest needs you! Winter is always a challenge to our facilities, trails, and grounds. Our spring work day will be Saturday, May 19 from 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. with a FREE lunch for those who help out.

From raking leaves, cleaning cabins, picking up downed branches, cleaning windows, sorting crafts, pulling out the boats to more skilled projects which include building a screened in porch on the Hermitage and painting the Grouse Circle bathroom, there is a project for all skill levels and groups.

Please let us know if you are able to come so we can have enough lunch and materials available. You can learn more at www.clearwaterforest.org or talk with April Joy Greibrok at 651-224-4728 ext 109.

4TH SUNDAY KNITTING GROUP—MARCH 27

We continue to create beautiful prayer shawls that bring comfort to people experiencing difficult times. The supply of yarn for donation to knitters/crocheters is dwindling, so if you are inclined to donate yarn, it would be greatly appreciated. Three skeins is generally enough for a prayer shawl. Also please try to minimize wool content in the yarn.

Our next 4th Sunday Knitting group will meet on March 27th after worship. Join us!

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN SPRING GATHERING—APRIL 28

The Presbyterian Women of the Twin Cities Presbytery will hold their spring gathering on Saturday, April 28 at First Presbyterian Church of Rochester. The gathering is from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We will plan to have a carpool driving to the event, departing from Central.

Registration forms for the event will be available in late March on the Women of Central bulletin board. The cost of the event is $15.

The Ahmady Family: One Year Later

It's been one year since the Taher, Awesta, Adiba, Waris, and Betol traveled from their home in Afghanistan to their new community in Minnesota.

March 9th marks a year of hard work and intense learning for The Ahmady Family and for everyone at Central who helped them navigate the culture, language and bureaucracy of their new home. Central members helped with innumerable initial tasks, including furnishing and arranging their new apartment, taking them to appointments, registering for school, finding a good paying job, getting a car, and learning how to drive it.

After one year in the United States, the kids are loving school and picking up English extremely quickly. Friends from Central continue regular visits for English lessons with Awesta, social time, and continued support navigating American life. Taher has a full-time job in security at Regions Hospital and they hope to eventually move closer to Saint Paul.
