CENTRAL PROUD TO HOST 2020 HOMELESS DAY ON THE HILL

Homeless Day on the Hill is a day of advocacy. Together, hundreds of Minnesotans gather and talk with their lawmakers about the need for more safe and affordable housing across the state.

Minnesota. Last year's event drew over 800 attendees, including Governor Walz and Lt. Governor Flanagan, and we are certain this year's event will be another important and productive day.

We are excited welcome them to Central and to join together as advocates to meet with legislators, share our stories, and show our support for important housing legislative agenda. It is a family-friendly event and open to all who care about ending homelessness in Central members & friends are welcome to be an event participant or volunteer as a building host. Registration is free but recommended for participants. Register at: <https://conta.cc/3bZyflx>.

UPCOMING WORSHIP

SUNDAY,
MARCH 1

The season of Lent sends us out into the wilderness. It was there, right after his baptism, that Jesus is sent by the Spirit to face challenges and temptations. Rev. Colby will preach on Matthew's account of the temptation. Central Choir sings and we will celebrate the sacrament of communion.

SUNDAY,
MARCH 8

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME BEGINS!
(SET YOUR CLOCKS FORWARD)

In her book Wild, Cheryl Strayed writes about hiking through desert wilderness toward a water supply on the Pacific Crest Trail, only to find that the water tank was empty. And she would have to walk miles more until the next source. On their long journey in the wilderness, the Israelites had days like this as well, including a memorable camp at Rephidim (Exodus 17:1-7).

Rev. Colby will preach. Central Choir will sing and Sticks and Steel II will play.

After worship, there will be an annual meeting of the congregation. To learn more, see page 3.

A WAY THROUGH THE

SHARE THE SEASON OF LENT AT CENTRAL

SUNDAY,
MARCH 15

Our Lenten theme of finding a way through the wilderness can evoke such different images and feelings. Psalm 23 describes lush green pastures and still waters, but also the valley of the shadow of death. As the Psalmist imagines a table prepared, all are invited to sit at the table together for fellowship and our Third Sunday Lunch.

Central Choir will sing and the Handbell Ensemble will play.

SUNDAY,
MARCH 22

Our Lenten wilderness theme continues with a story from the prophet Ezekiel (37:1-14) staring into a valley of dry bones. What do we do when the world feels desolate? How do we offer words of encouragement that can bring new life when we feel most lost?

Central Choir sings and the Ars Nova Brass Quintet shares in worship.

SUNDAY,
MARCH 29

On this Sunday, professional musicians and the talented Central Choir will present the world premier of the cantata To Know the Path by composer Linda Kachelmeier. This 30-minute choral piece features texts that focus on immigration, the deep desire for comfort and safety, and how we find our path in this world.

After worship, stay for an installation of our Inspired Concert Series at 1:00 p.m. which will celebrate the music of Linda Kachelmeier, including art song, instrumental music, and choral music. During this concert, a free-will donation will be accepted benefiting Alight (formally known as American Refugee Committee) which seeks to help refugee families.

Want to learn more about this amazing composer? Then, join us before the concert at 12:15 p.m. when Linda will present a 'pre-concert' talk.

SESSION IS ORGANIZED FOR 2020

At its January meeting, the Session convened and organized itself to do efficient and effective ministry in 2020.

The Presbyterian Book of Order describes the leadership provided by the elders who make up the governing board for the church. "As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament church provided persons with particular gifts to share in discernment of God's Spirit and governance of God's people. Accordingly, congregations should elect persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit. Ruling elders are so named not because they lord over the congregation (Matt. 20:25), but because they are chosen by the congregation to discern and measure its fidelity to the word of God, and to strengthen and nurture its faith and life."

Serving on Session is one way to be involved in ministry and leadership at Central, and we are grateful to those who are called, elected, and installed in these positions. But, our Session also hopes to involve many other members and friends of Central in the work of the church. The following people will serve as leaders of the following committees, and many of those work teams would love to have other people help them dream and evaluate and plan and execute.

WORSHIP, MUSIC, AND ARTS

Chair: Dennis Reimer

This committee oversees big-picture worship and arts planning and coordinates the work of ushers and communion preparation.

CHILDREN AND YOUTH

Chair: Kati Berg

This committee oversees all the programs that Central offers for children and youth, including Sunday School programming, family and youth outings and events.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CENTRAL CONGREGATION

The annual meeting of the congregation and corporation of Central Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, March 8 in the sanctuary immediately following worship. The annual meeting may consider such business as electing officers, hearing reports of the session along with plans for the coming year, hearing reports from the board of deacons and other organizations of the church, and transacting other business as appropriate. It shall review the adequacy of the compensation of the pastor upon report of the prior review by session.

BE ON ALERT FOR SCAMS

Churches, including Central, have been the target of scam attempts through emails and text messages. Church members have received emails and text messages that appear to be from Rev. David Colby or other staff members, but are a "spoofing" scam. These messages may request gift cards, or the transfer of money, but are sometimes just an attempt to start an email conversation that would potentially lead to you giving money or sensitive information to a scammer.

If you receive one of these messages, we recommend you report it to your server and block the sender. Please do not reply or send financial aid of any kind, personal bank or credit information, photos, gift cards, etc.

Central Presbyterian Church and its staff will never request money or gifts outside the normal chain of giving outlined on our website at www.centralforgood.org/give. We promote giving and special event donations in the following ways:

- Checks and cash received during worship offering.
- Credit card donations through the PayPal link on our website only. You will never be asked to send credit card or PayPal information via email.
- Automatic bank transfers (ACH) set up directly with Anna in the church office.

- Goods that you carry into the church. (Such as the Giving Tree or Diaper Drive donations).

Occasionally, we may have giving campaigns or special requests, however, you will always hear about those from the pulpit. If a request seems odd, please report the attempt to the church office. Unfortunately we are seeing a rise in this type of spoofing scam, so please trust your gut instincts if an email message seems odd or out of character.

DISCUSSION ON ANTI-RACISM

Last month, the Bible Study hour was dedicated to a two-day discussion on anti-racism. Anti-racism is an every day, every moment process which requires persistent self awareness, self-criticism and self-examination. The group shared with each other moments where they themselves had been racist or anti-racist, reflecting on Ibram X Kendo's book How to Be Anti-racist.

Everyone, every day, through action or inaction, speech or silence, is choosing in the moment to be racist or anti-racist. It follows then that those identities are fluid, and racism is not a fixed character flaw. "What we say about race, what we do about race in each moment, determines what - not who - we are."

We invite you to give further thought and study to this topic. There are several copies of Ibram X Kendo's book How to Be Anti-racist available for check out from office.

MARCH FAMILY EVENT

The Children and Youth Committee invites you to:

INDOOR PLANT-POWERED PICNIC POTLUCK

When: March 21, 11:30am-1:00pm

Where: Central's dining room

Why: As people of faith, caring for God's creation is part of our call. As we see the destructive effects of climate change on God's creation, including a disproportionate impact on those living in poverty and in the least developed countries, we are reminded of the urgent need for global action.

Join us this Saturday morning to learn about one way to take action: Creation Care through Cooking Classes to Combat Climate Change!

What: During our time together, we'll try some plant-based food potluck-style, learn how to make some family-friendly snacks, and make some things to take home. We'll also talk about other ways that we can make small changes in our daily lives to address climate change!

RSVP: Please email Katie Morris at katiem@centralforgood.org by March 14 if your family would like to join us!

Please Bring: A plant-based meal or item that you would like to try! This might be a new recipe you've been wanting to make, a vegan treat you've seen at the store, or an old favorite that you want others to try. If you make a dish to bring, please bring a copy of the recipe to share with others.

CHILDREN & YOUTH SUMMER FUN

SUMMER CAMP IN THE CITY

We are partnering again this year with House of Hope Presbyterian Church for Camp in the City! Join us for a fun-filled week of Bible stories, art, music, outdoor activities, and more.

Running June 22-26 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., this program is run by the Clearwater Forest staff. Cost is $60 per child and is open to children 4-years old by September 1, 2019 through those who have completed 5th grade by June 2020.

Registration is now open through a link with House of Hope at: www.cognitofrms.com/HouseOfHopePresbyterianChurch/CampInTheCity.

Scholarships are available, contact Katie Morris for more information.

CLEARWATER SUMMER CAMP

Are any of your children or youth interested in attending Clearwater summer camp this year? For those unfamiliar, Clearwater Forest is a summer camp and wellness retreat center positioned on over 1,000 acres of land adjacent to the beautiful Clearwater Lake in central Minnesota. Let Katie Morris know so that we can connect you with other families planning to go – perhaps you can choose the same week! Central does offer scholarships for Clearwater, check in with Katie Morris to learn more.

CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

[ FROM KATIE MORRIS ]

In the last year, the Children and Youth Committee has developed and approved a new Child Protection Policy to ensure the safety of our children, youth, and all the staff and volunteers who work with them. Join us to learn about this new policy on Sunday, March 22 after worship.

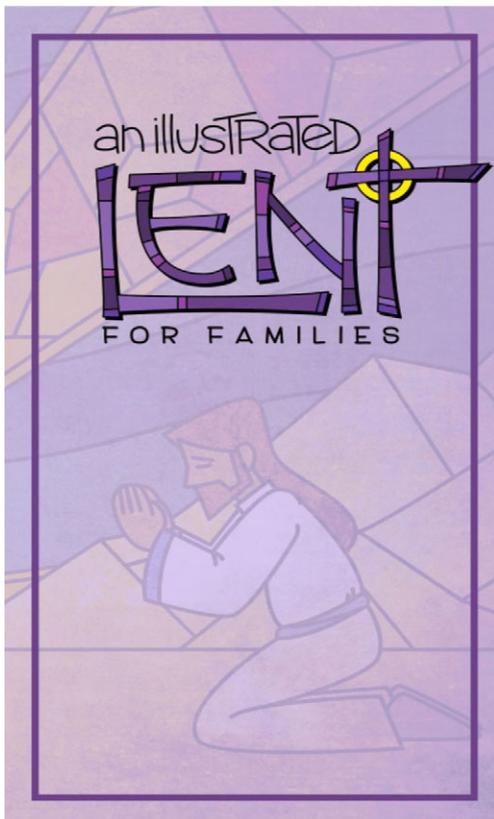

As a community of faith, we believe that children and youth are an integral part of our community, and this policy helps to uphold our commitment to nurturing them in a safe and welcoming environment. The majority of this policy simply formalizes many of the ways in which we already work with children and youth, with one additional background check piece for volunteers. The policy was approved by Session in December, and the Children and Youth Committee would like to invite you to a time of conversation and questions about the policy on Sunday, March 22. All are welcome to join us – parents/guardians of children and youth, volunteers who work with children and youth, and any members of the Central community who would like to learn more!

If you have any questions about this policy, or are unable to make this discussion date and would like to learn more, please contact Katie Morris at katiem@centralforgood.org or call (651) 224-4728, ext 109.

FAMILY LENTEN MATERIALS

The season of Lent is upon us!

Much like Advent, Lent is a season of waiting and preparation, and it can also be a time to intentionally slow down as a family. While we look toward the joy of Easter morning, Lent also takes us through the challenging and sorrowful stories of Jesus' arrest and execution.

The many emotions involved in the Lenten season call us to slow down and listen. Some people have traditions of "giving up" something (which comes from the practice of fasting) during the Lenten season, and others like the tradition of adding in something new to their daily life during Lent.

Just as during the season of Advent, Lenten family devotional booklets will be available at the church throughout the season of Lent in the Sunday School rooms or in the Friendship Room during the coffee hour.

Find some time to look at the reflections together as a family each week throughout the season!

If you have questions regarding these family materials, contact Katie Morris at katiem@centralforgood.org.
