

CONNECT CENTRAL

Life Together

BY REV. CHRIS CHATELAINE-SAMSEN

Something I've grown to (mostly) love is biking in cities. I used to commute to work by bike in Washington DC, and I've started biking here to Central now that I'm a bit less concerned about rogue ice across the bike lanes. It's a great commute across the greenway and up Summit!

You get to know a city differently on a bike. You smell the bakeries and the coffee shops. You hear different conversations on street corners and kids running to catch the school bus. And yes, you also find out exactly where the road needs to be repaved, which drivers are in a particular rush that morning, and how the mosquito population is doing at any given moment in time.

In other words, you really get to know a place in an intimate way, good and troubling, pleasant and messy. You see and experience things and people that you might otherwise miss going 45 mph. I think about Jesus' ministry and how critical it was that he walked where he went. Yes, there wasn't much of an option, but how many stories in which Jesus changed somebody's life began because he noticed somebody, or somebody noticed him?

In order for that to happen, you have to slow down and get close to the world around you. You have to open yourself up to being interrupted.

As I begin to work alongside you, that's my hope. To slow down and

Stewardship Update

FROM THE FINANCE & STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The important work of Central Presbyterian Church is made possible and sustained by your generous financial giving.

Thank you.

A special thanks to everyone who has pledged or gives regularly to support the financial needs of Central. Pledged and regular, recurring giving helps us to plan and budget for our congregation and community. It enables us to better understand the stable sources of income for everything from staff salaries to acts of service to our neighborhood - all putting our faith and commitments into action.

Although our pledge goal for the year is $390,000, we are below that total. While this congregation is full of people generous with their time and resources, a greater proportion of pledged and regular giving will significantly reduce any uncertainty about the budget.

If you have not already, and especially if you're already planning on giving, please consider making a pledge or setting up recurring giving at www.centralforgood.org/give.

You can also reach out to Church Administrator Anna Sanchez at office@centralforgood.org with any questions. As we continue to grow in faith, let us continue to respond to God's abundance with our own, planning for an abundant future.

Help Central continue to plan and adapt by making a pledge!

"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

Children & Youth News

FROM JENNIFER ANDERSON, DIRECTOR OF MUSIC & YOUTH MINISTRY

Graduation Sunday

Hard to believe, it is that time already when we talk about the end of the school year and graduations!

Central's Graduation Sunday is scheduled for June 11. During worship on this day, we would like to take a moment to recognize and honor all students graduating - be it from high school, college, or trade school programs.

If you or someone you know would like to be included in this service of recognition, please let Jennifer Anderson know by May 21 via email to jennifera@centralforgood.org.

Please note that you will be asked to participate in the service on June 11.

Camp & College Scholarships

Thanks to funds given to Central, youth scholarships are again available for camp or college from the Nella Jury - Edna Larson Fund.

Requests up to $300 will be considered for children or youth who participate in the ministry of Central Presbyterian Church. The final award amount will be dependent on the number of applications received this year.

If interested, please submit a short letter of request by May 31.

The letter should outline your connection to Central and how you plan to use the scholarship funds (i.e. camp or school).

The letter should be addressed to Central, to the attention of the Children & Youth committee. It can be emailed to Jennifer Anderson at jennifera@centralforgood.org.

Calling All Quilters and Creatives!

BY KIERA FAYE, CHAIR OF WORSHIP, MUSIC & ARTS COMMITTEE

The Worship Music & Arts Committee is launching a project to add to the beauty of the sanctuary year-round, and we need your skills!

Inspired Art & Paraments

We'll be working together to design and create new banners and paraments for seasons and events throughout the church year.

Paraments are liturgical hangings and ornaments on and around the chancel, including cloths hanging from the pulpit or lectern. In this case, we'll also be looking at banners that hang in the sanctuary, such as the beautiful Advent candle banners created by Marie Prottengeier Smith and Wendy Flinner.

The colors of liturgical paraments are often used to mark the different seasons of the church year. For example, white is used during Christmas to represent purity and joy, while purple is used during Lent to represent penitence and preparation.

Red is used during Pentecost to represent the Holy Spirit, and green is used during Ordinary Time to represent growth and new life. What colors and themes mean the most to you throughout the church year?

Share Your Talents!

Quilting and sewing skills are welcome, but we also need concept designers, project managers, and helpers. (Maybe some fabric donations as well!)

Curious? Or ready to jump right in? Join us in the Friendship Room after worship on Sunday, May 7 to kick-off this project and brainstorm some concepts with other creative minds as well.

Do You Love Exploring History?

BY CHRISTIE RACHELLE, DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Are you a history buff? Perhaps you want to learn more about the origin, people, and stories of Central's 170+ year history? If so, there is a special project just for you!

This coming fall, we will be launching a special display about the history of Central as we open a new chapter with Rev. Chatelaine-Samsen. To do this, we need a handful of people to help with exploring the history room to identify photographs and materials that would be a great part of the new exhibit.

To volunteer for this short-term project crew, drop an email to christier@centralforgood.org or call (952) 564-4472. We will coordinate days/times to meet based on volunteer availability.

Help Unlock the Metro & Create More Affordable Housing!

BY LEON OMAN, BEACON LEADERSHIP TEAM

Remember the old keys being collected in the Friendship Room earlier in the winter? It's time to get them ready for ACTION! Join us in a hands-on activity and learn more about a powerful way to address homelessness! It's time to unlock housing equity!

Save the Date

Central's Beacon Leadership Team members invite you to join them on May 21st in writing messages to the members of the Metropolitan Council and attaching them to the keys we collected. Our tagged keys will be combined with those collected by other Beacon congregations and presented to the Metropolitan Council at an upcoming media event presented by the larger Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative. It will be a dramatic way to publicly try to change public policy.

May 21 is the day of our 3rd Sunday Lunch. After lunch, join the event upstairs in the Friendship Room. A Beacon team member will share about the need for deeply affordable housing, especially in the suburbs, and the importance of the Met Council making project-based vouchers more accessible to developers.

After this short talk, we'll work together on tagging our keys to get them ready for delivery. Children are welcome too!

Guess the Number of Keys!

On May 7 and 14, we will have the donated keys on display in the Friendship Room. Come guess the number and enter our contest! A $25 gift card to "Keys" Café and Bakery (located near the church) will be presented on May 21 to the one with the closest guess!

Let's Experience the City and This Life Together CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

get close. To see and be seen. And to be changed. That's also my hope for this congregation, our neighborhood, and the cities in which we are embedded. I don't want to look out through the windows of an air conditioned car or a comfortable office at the world around. I need to experience life with you and the city we call home. Central is in the city for good.

I'm looking forward to getting to know Central and the city in order to do that good, up close, blessings, warts, and all. I invite you to help me do that work, showing me what you see, so together we can share the stories of God at work in our midst and in the city.

Women's Networking Group

FROM SUE HOFFMAN, WOMEN OF CENTRAL

May Gathering

On Monday, May 1, we will be going to The Lost Fox (213 4th St. E., Suite 100, St. Paul, MN) located in the Depot building. We can walk/light rail at 5:15 p.m. from church or you can meet us there at 5:30 p.m. Please RSVP by Friday, April 28 to women@centralforgood.org to let us know if you can join us.

June Gathering

On Monday, June 5, the Women of Central will have a special potluck event to discuss our plans for the future. Sally Mortenson and Casey Wells will host us at Kellogg Square Apartments (111 Kellogg Blvd. E., St. Paul, MN). We will gather in the building's community room at 5:30 p.m. This room is great for visiting and we will make the most of it! Indoors offers a full kitchen, tables and chairs, as well as sofas and chairs for visiting with one another. Outdoors there is a great patio with a grill and other seating areas.

For this potluck, the Women of Central will provide burgers, hot dogs, and veggie burgers for grilling. We will also provide buns (including gluten-free), and condiments - plus plates, silverware, and napkins. If you can join us, we ask that you bring a side dish to share. This could be a salad, dessert, appetizer, chips, or whatever you like. Please also bring your own beverage.

During the evening, we will share in conversation about what you want to see and do as the Women of Central. The last time we held this type of discussion was in 2016, so it is again time for us to plan for our future! You don't need to prepare anything. Just come and share your thoughts and ideas.

Reserve Your Seat!

If you plan to join us for the June potluck gathering, please RSVP by Thursday, June 1 via email to women@centralforgood.org. We will send parking and access information to those who plan to attend by June 3.

Planning for the New Program Year

BY CHRISTIE RACHELLE, DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATIONS

Our program year is not yet done and, can you believe, Central staff are already talking about the next program year and all the exciting things to which we look forward?

This summer will be a busy time of planning and our staff can use your help! All committees are asked to submit their proposed calendar events for September 2023 - August 2024 program year to Rev. Chatelaine-Samsen no later than June 6. This will help us ensure that the coming year runs smoothly and all activities are timed well with other worship and church events.

We understand that not all things can be known at this time. We will look to accommodate future requests as able. However, by knowing events as early as we can, we position everyone for a more well-rounded and successful church and mission experience.

If you have questions about the church calendar or planning, please speak with Rev. Chatelaine-Samsen at (651) 224-4728 ext. 101 or email him directly at chriscs@centralforgood.org.

Celebrating, Honoring, and Giving Gratitude for Pianist Steve Swanson!

On May 21, we will be saying goodbye to Steve Swanson. Steve has been integral to our worship experiences for over 12 years. He is one of the absolute finest pianists in town, and we have been blessed to have him offer his music for us week after week. Steve and his husband Casey are moving to Seattle for Casey's job. Don't miss the chance to thank Steve and to offer your best wishes to him on Sunday, May 21. Cards and notes of thanks are welcome.
